¶2. (U) Post proposes the following press guidance:

--We are aware of stories in the Kuwaiti press about an alleged traffic altercation in Kuwait City involving members of the U.S. military and Kuwaiti civilians on the evening of May 5th.

--U.S. military authorities are cooperating with their Kuwaiti counterparts to investigate the reported incident. Any details will come through Department of Defense channels.

--We regret any report of friction between Kuwaiti citizens and Americans in Kuwait. Kuwait has long been home to a large number of Americans, including both civilian and military personnel, and there is a long history of excellent relations.

--We are grateful for the support, cooperation, and hospitality that Kuwait has shown our military. This security cooperation is extremely important for both the United States and Kuwait.

--If asked:

--U.S. Ambassador to Kuwait Deborah K. Jones has been in personal contact with senior echelons of the Government of Kuwait about this case.
